

This Fund is maintained mainly in foreign exchange and the proceeds is used to finance the scholarships, living expenses, travel,, tuition fees and research of IBA faculty proceeding abroad for higher degree or non-degree courses, short term assignments, post doctoral fellowships, research collaboration, etc.

The Fund also finances the expenses of the faculty members from overseas partner institutions visiting Pakistan for delivering courses, lectures, curriculum review, seminars, conferences, research projects, etc.

External donors and alumni residing overseas are approached to contribute to this Fund.

In order to donate to Faculty Development at IBA, following options are available:

Endowed Chairs for Senior Professor

Ten Chairs to be named after the benefactors. The income from the fund would be utilized to pay the salaries of eminent scholars.

Foreign scholarships for Faculty

This fund will be utilized for training faculty members at leading universities abroad.

Hiring Foreign Faculty

Each foreign faculty member will cost on average $150,000 a year. Donors can also arrange visits to IBA for only one semester and in other cases several weeks only.
