A New Chapter of Leadership Begins in Islamabad

IBA Karachi has marked a significant milestone with the groundbreaking of its Islamabad Campus, in collaboration with DHA Islamabad–Rawalpindi. The new campus extends IBA's 70-year legacy of Leadership, Excellence, and Impact to Pakistan's capital.

Located across 12.5 acres in DHA Phase V, Islamabad, the future-ready campus is envisioned as an integrated ecosystem for education, innovation, research, entrepreneurship, professional development, and campus life.

The campus will include academic facilities for 3,000+ students, an Innovation Block featuring advanced research laboratories and 250+ innovation and corporate engagement spaces, Olympic-standard sports facilities, residential accommodation for 1,000+ students, a 500-seat auditorium, and a multi-floor library.

More than just a new campus, this initiative represents the beginning of a new ecosystem for learning, innovation, and meaningful impact, further strengthening IBA's commitment to excellence in higher education.

ALUMNI CHAPTER HIGHLIGHTS

IBA Alumni Islamabad Chapter Reconnecting Across the Capital

Two recent gatherings brought IBA alumni together in Islamabad to reconnect, exchange experiences, and strengthen connections across generations of the IBA community.

22 August | Alumni Meetup

Organized by Muhammad Farooq Vayani, the gathering brought together alumni from different batches for an evening of conversation and reconnection.

Alumni shared memories from their time at IBA while catching up on their professional journeys and experiences since graduation.

30 August | Alumni Brunch Meetup

The Islamabad alumni community gathered again at Islamabad Club for a relaxed brunch and an afternoon of conversation.

The meetup offered another opportunity for alumni to reconnect, build new connections, and maintain relationships beyond their usual digital groups.

Together, these gatherings reflect the strength of IBA's alumni community in Islamabad, where connections formed at IBA continue across careers, generations, and cities.
